

What Independent Study Looks Like In...Business

1. Read a relevant chapter from a different text book to your core text.
2. Reread both those chapters until the idea sinks in.
3. Watch a Kate Mary Business revision video on YouTube.
4. Use the main Business news websites for topical examples; use ft.com, bbc.co.uk/news, bloomberg.com etc.
5. Pull off a company report from a company website to study.
6. Practice the maths of the six metrics for a firm.
7. Interpret the meaning of the six metrics for that firm.
8. Practice the maths of CPA, decision trees and DCF/NPV by inventing your own examples.
9. Plan a response to a Unit 3 20 mark essay question.
10. Try to apply a theorist to an area of the subject that is not associated with them to get yourself thinking.

Jenny's appraisal had been going really well.
Then she asked for a pay rise.
