

What Independent Study Looks Like In...Politics

1. Plan a response to an essay question.
2. Write your own essay question and then come up with a list of indicative content.
3. Write part/ all of an essay response.
4. Re-write an essay using the feedback to improve.
5. Create flash cards/ quizlet cards for key thinkers in the ideologies.
6. Research and add further examples to your notes.
7. Read the next topic in the textbook, and make notes of where it links to our current topic.
8. Listen to a political podcast about a story that relates to something you've studied.
9. Mind map the links between the different topics we've studied.
10. Read a political / news website or blog.

